

Golden Gate National Recreational Area

Temporary Food Event Permit Program – Permit Types

| | Examples of Food Types | Permit Type | Documents Required | Insurance Required |
|--|--|-------------------------------|---|--|
| High Risk Food Vendor *any food cooked on or off site | Seafood, eggs, poultry, beef, pork, deli meats, dairy, cooked starches, cut melons, sandwiches, etc. | High Risk Food TFE Permit | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Permit to Operate • Food Safety Manager Certification • Inspection Report (For vendor and prep facility, 6 items total) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Certificate of Insurance from vendor • Indemnification |
| Moderate Risk Food Vendor minimal preparation on site, sampling of low risk foods | Bread, baked goods, whole fruit, condiments*, candies, chocolates, honey, oils, jams/preserves, syrups, etc. * no egg or dairy | Moderate Risk Food TFE Permit | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Permit to operate • Food Safety Manager Name and Certification Expiration Date on Permit Application (For vendor only, one item total) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No Certification of Insurance for TFE • Indemnification |
| Low Risk Food | Pre-packaged foods (non high risk), drop off platters, beverages, etc. | No permit required | None | None |